We do not consider General Studies or AAT qualifications in the calculation of UCAS points and ideally, you should have one A level in a subject with relevant transferrable knowledge (such as Maths, Accounting or Business).

In addition to your academic ability, you will need to demonstrate your commitment and work ethic to ensure success in your professional studies and show genuine enthusiasm for providing our clients with the high quality of service they expect from the region's leading independent firm. Your determination to succeed both in your practical work and professional study will be key to your success.

These opportunities encompass a training agreement which covers the costs associated with your professional training, including (where relevant) a generous amount of study leave to attend tuition, revision and the exams themselves, delivered in partnership with our key training providers. Developing your technical knowledge in this way and utilising it on a variety of interesting client assignments, with the support and guidance of our experienced, knowledgeable senior team, means you will have the basics to ensure your success in the professional examinations and ultimately progress your career.

To find out more about training with us, please visit www.bhp.co.uk/careers. Recruitment for the Graduate and Placement Programmes commences in late-November and the Trainee Recruitment Programme starts in late-March of each year; although there is no guarantee that each route is offered every year in all locations.

In the meantime, if you have specific questions about training with BHP, please email recruit@bhp.co.uk and our HR team will be more than happy to help.
