

Time	Presentation	Speaker
08.45	Registration & refreshments
09.15	Welcome & introduction	Jane Marshall Partner and Head of Charities & Not for Profit BHP, Chartered Accountants Chair: Ben Slade, Chief Executive, SkillForce
09.30	VAT Current issues for the sector	Simon Buchan , Head of VAT BHP, Chartered Accountants
10.10	Trustees – recruitment, induction, new disqualification rules and possible waivers	Catherine Rustomji , Partner Browne Jacobson LLP
10.50	COFFEE BREAK
11.10	Gift Aid Update	Rachelle Rowbottom , Tax Director BHP, Chartered Accountants
11.45	Breakout sessions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • See over for full details
12.35	BUFFET LUNCH
13.30	Breakout sessions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • See over for full details
14.20	An update from the regulator on their regulatory approach, developments in guidance and lessons from recent research and casework	Nigel Davies , Head of Accountancy Services The Charity Commission
15.00	TEA BREAK
15.20	After the fundraising and safeguarding scandals, how do we rebuild public trust in charities?	Andrew Hind Professor of Charity Governance and Finance at Cass Business School, London
16.00	Panel questions	All
16.30	Close

Breakout Sessions

MORNING

Choose one of the following:

Breakout 1

Future proof your charity with cloud accounting

Chris Atkinson, BHP Prosper

Breakout 2

Top 10 tips for charity investing & good governance

Julie Hutchison & Edward Marsden, Standard Life Wealth

Breakout 3

Serious Incident reporting – what you need to know

Jane Marshall, BHP, Chartered Accountants

AFTERNOON

Choose one of the following:

Breakout 4

Government or governance – best practice in an uncertain world; a practical guide to ensuring that your corporate governance is effective and supports your charitable objectives

Chris Humphreys, BHP, Chartered Accountants

Breakout 5

Accelerating impact with digital; how non-profits can augment their impact by developing in-house digital capabilities

Ann Longley,
Digital Director, Prince's Trust /
Founder, Something New Together

Breakout 6

Fundraising best practice and improving by learning from complaints

Sarah Fox, The Fundraising Regulator